MESSAGE | Mary!

SCRIPTURE | John 20:1-18

PRACTICE: Bring Jesus Your Tears

- Imagine Jesus asking you, “Why are you crying?”
- Tell Him. Tell Him what you’ve lost or what you fear losing. Tell Him where it hurts. Tell Him about your wounds and your regrets.
- Imagine Jesus welcoming your tears, and saying your name.
- Let His wounds and His resurrection speak to your tears, and renew your hope.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

- Read today’s Scripture passage out loud. What stands out to you? What questions do they raise? Feel free to wrestle with these questions together.
- Is it easy to bring Jesus your tears? How about other people? What experiences in your life have made this easier or harder?
- What do you make of the way Jesus interacts with Mary? What does this reveal about Him, and how does that speak to you?
- The resurrection means the New Creation has come, and we can be part of it. In what ways do you sense God calling, sending and empowering you to be His witness, a peacemaker, or agent of renewal?
